

THE NEXT Big Red

TAIL
Fiery-red tail nearly sweeps the ground

COAT
Gleaming, coppery-red, indicates peak condition

HEIGHT
At just over 16 hands, he is shorter than Man o'War and Secretariat, but it is his long body that sets him apart

NECK
Long, muscular neck helps make his stride smooth and rhythmic

REAR LEGS
Rear legs act as springs

MARKINGS
Two neat white stockings behind

STRIDE
Stride is significantly longer than the average of 25 feet

CHEST
Deep chest

FOREHEAD
Broad forehead sports a distinctive irregular star and stripe

"An intimidating presence."

- Jim Squires,
At the Rail, New York Times

"A monster!"

-John Murtagh,
English Jockey

"Grand!"

- John Pricci,
Horsereadinginsider.com

"A bronze god!"

-Sherry Ross,
New York Daily News

"One classy colt."

-Richard Rosenblatt,
Associated Press

"A head-turner."

- Jim Cornes,
Dubai Racing Club

"What a horse!"

- Maryjean Wall,
MaryjeanWall.com

"Breathtaking!"

- Phil Janack,
Schenectady Daily Gazette

"One of the most naturally gifted horses of recent years..."

-National Thoroughbred
Racing Association

Horse of the Year Curlin can become the richest thoroughbred ever in the $750,000 Jockey Club Gold Cup (GI) at Belmont Park on Saturday, September 27.